in proportion to the size of the firm body.

Ears: Medium to small, broad at the base and rounded. Set wide apart on the rounded top head, but not extreme or flared.

Nose: Short, broad, straight. Gives snub appearance to the third circle. Set with an obvious change of direction at the stop and in alignment with the chin.

Profile: When viewed from the side, no flat planes above the nose. Stop not a break. When viewed from the front, expression of roundness is created by a series of three circles-- (1) chubby, round cheeks, (2) broad, round head, and (3) broad, rounded muzzle.

Neck: Short, thick, heavily muscled, creating the appearance of no neck, blending with the chubby, full, round, cheeks. Should be especially pronounced on mature males.

BODY:

Torso: Wide, sturdy, muscular, firm, powerful, well rounded, with deep, broad, rounded chest and considerable depth of flank. The shoulders are broad and flat at the wither, and the hips are the same width. Back is level. Semi-cobby, neither cobby nor rangy; slightly longer than cobby. Females proportionately smaller.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: The British is an imposing breed. Their large, round face should have a sweet open expression, with a smug rounded muzzle. Chubby cheeks and no-neck, blend into a stocky, semi-cobby, muscular, wide and firm body. Their coat is dense and rich, plush and thick in both shorthair and longhair varieties. Slightly reserved in temperament, they are a four feet on the floor breed, and like to be handled with gentle firmness and supported when carried.

ALLOWANCES: Seasonal changes in coat density, length and texture.

PENALIZE: Lack of muscle tone, cow hocks.

(BS): Long or soft coat, "Exotic Shorthair" coat, light undercoat, light delicate boning.

(BL): Longhair: short or silky coat, long flowing "Persian" coat, light undercoat, light delicate boning.
